

MOTION BY SUPERVISOR MARK RIDLEY-THOMAS

December 20, 2011

Re-establish Reward for David Marcial, Larry Marcial and Luis Cervantes

On Friday, June 30, 2006, David Marcial, age 10; his uncle, Larry Marcial, age 22, and a neighbor, Luis Cervantes, age 17, were shot and killed in front of their home near Central Avenue and 49th Street in Los Angeles. A fourth victim, Sergio Marcial, Jr., was hospitalized with critical injuries. This crime was a senseless and unprovoked attack.

David left behind a father, Sergio Sr., his mother, Christina, and two younger sisters. His uncle, Larry, was a truck driver who also ran a disc jockey business with his father; he left behind his wife, his daughter Kelly and son Larry Marcial, Jr. Luis Cervantes left behind his mother, Rosa Meza, and his three younger siblings. None of the victims were gang members.

On July 5, 2006, this Board approved a $30,000 reward offer, $10,000 for each victim. This reward offer expired on October 3, 2006. The suspect has since been apprehended, tried and recently convicted of the murders of the three victims. The
